IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INC

December 14, 2023
Washington, DC. USA

On behalf of the Georgian Association in the USA, we congratulate Georgia on the historic decision by the European Union to grant Georgia the EU membership candidate status. We join in the joy of our compatriots in Georgia, in the United States and around the world and celebrate this long awaited moment for generations of the Georgian people.

Our heartfelt gratitude to all the champions in Georgia, the United States, Europe, and around the world, who have worked tirelessly to achieve this result. What lies ahead is a path that will take a commitment and unity in advancement of the necessary reforms. Georgian-Americans, friends of Georgia, and well-wishers from the United States will continue to support Georgia in this effort and strengthen ties with the West.

We also congratulate Ukraine and Moldova on their advancement in the EU accession process and wish them success and resilience in their efforts.
